Grammar review.

MUCH vs. MANY

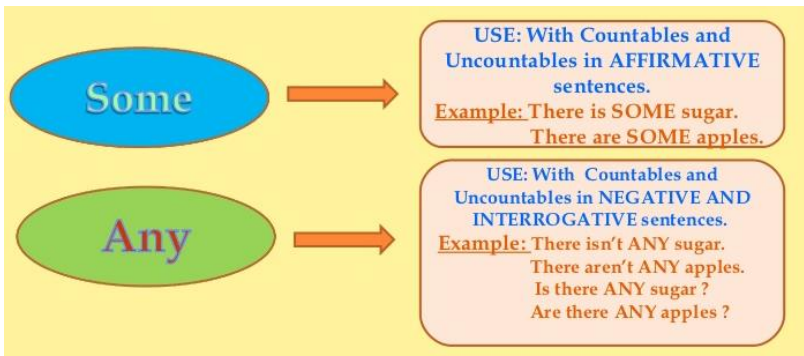

MUCH

- Means a large amount of, or a lot in quantity
- Used with uncountable nouns
- Used in negative and interrogative clauses

MANY

- Means a large number of, or a lot in number
- Used with countable nouns
- Used in questions, affirmative sentences, and negations

A Lot of

- A lot of is used with uncountable nouns.
- E.g. There is a lot of traffic today.

Lots of

- Lots of is used with plural countable nouns.
- E.g. He has lots of friends.

A little

A little is used with positive quantity and non-countable nouns. It means "a small amount" or "some".

Examples:

- There is a little milk in the refrigerator
- Would you like a little water?
- Mary got a little bit of pie.
- Can't you discount it a little?

A few

A few represents a positive quantity. It is used with plural nouns. It means some, a small amount.

A few + Plural Countable Nouns

Examples:

- He has a few good friends so he is happy.
- There are a few books on the shelf.
- We stayed a few days in Paris and visited the Eiffel Tower.

A

- "A" is used in front of singular countable nouns (a person, animal or thing) which are not specific.
- We don't use a before uncountable or plural nouns.
- If a noun starts with a consonant sound (b, c, d, f, g, h, j, k, etc.), "a" comes before the noun.

E.g. a dog, a chicken, a boy, a teacher, a girl, a lesson, a website, etc.

An

- "AN" is used in front of singular countable nouns which are not specific.
- We don't use a before uncountable or plural nouns.
- If the noun starts with a vowel sound (a, e, i, o, u), "an" comes before the noun.

E.g. an umbrella, an owl, an image, an hour, an enemy, an author, etc.

The

- We use 'THE' in front of all nouns (It does not matter whether the nouns are singular, plural countable or uncountable) to describe someone or something specific or unique.

E.g. the Moon, the world, the Sun, the atmosphere, the rain, the South, the West, the North, etc.

My Grandfather's farm

My grandfather lived until he was 92 years old. He was a farmer with a cattle farm in a small town near a river in the southeastern part of New York State. He had two sons. The family lived in an old farmhouse. The oldest son, my uncle, owns the farm now.

In those days, people often bought beef directly from local farmers. My grandfather raised some of the best beef in the area. People came to his farm by car and truck to buy it.

Everybody loved my grandfather because he was such an honest and friendly man. He never went out to have dinner at restaurants, but every now and then he invited his family and friends to the farm for a picnic. He served hamburgers made from his beef. He didn't retire until he was 80. He said the secret to a long life was a happy marriage and a glass of warm milk before going to bed.

- 1 How long did the grandfather live?
- 2 Where did he live?
- 3 What kind of farm did he have?
- 4 How many children did he have?
- 5 Why did everyone love him?
- 6 When did he stop working?
- 7 What was his secret to a long life?
